

“The Excitement of Bewilderment with God”, Acts 16:6-10

- How might bewilderment be necessary and helpful?

1. God closes and opens doors

A. Negative information

B. Positive information

Discussion: “Have you ever had a ‘strange’ experience of God opening or closing a door?”
 What did you learn from it?”

Acts 16.1-10

2. How to respond with faith

“How did Paul and his companions respond to God opening and closing doors?”

A. E.....

PERSONAL QUESTION: “What is God leading you to e.....?”

B. P.....

PERSONAL QUESTION: “Where is God leading you to p.....?”

C. D.....

PERSONAL QUESTION: “What d..... is God placing before you?”

- All three are an expression of faith - trusting God that he has a purpose

Conclusion

- Bithynia, 1 Peter 1:1
- Galatia, Galatians 1.1-2
- Troas, 2 Corinthians 2:12

SUMMARY THOUGHT:

“Bewilderment is and because it makes us and keeps us”