

Fixed on Jesus

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.” (Hebrews 12:1–3 NIV11)

How can memories of past spiritual victories help you stay fixed on Jesus?

What present obstacles might be the opportunities for God to work His power in your weakness?

What future joys can help you persevere in the present?

“The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.” (Galatians 5:6 NIV11)
