

“They tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might” (Psalm 145:11)

Basic preaching and teaching course for men and women

Extra Class: Summary and answering Questions. Tuesday Teaching Tip 214

1. Feedback

1. TTT: “How to give feedback to a preacher”
2. Three rules
 1. Do you want some?
 2. How much?
 3. How do you want it?
3. Evaluation criteria
 1. Bible - used accurately
 2. Point - clear?
 3. Heart - touched?
 4. Presentation - un-distracting?

2. Bibles

1. Include text in sermon notes
2. Physical Bible where possible
3. “Don’t turn there”
 1. “As it says in....”

3. Remember who you are - not a ‘preacher’: Michael J. Quicke, “360 degree preaching”, p201

4. Remember the power of humility: John Stott, “I believe in preaching”, p335

5. Remember the vision: Dr M. Lloyd-Jones, “Preaching and preachers”. p325

6. Remember the greatness of God: John Piper, “The supremacy of God in preaching”, p109

7. My own experience: Isaiah 30:19ff

Conclusion

- Question: “What is the biggest lesson you have learned through this course?”

- “One generation commends your works to another; they tell of your mighty acts.” (Psalm 145:4 NIV11)